Dear Grace,
 I'm nine years old and I live in York with my family.
 I've got a brother called Jim. He is a real pest but I like him because we always play together and have fun!
 I go to primary school from Monday to Friday.
 School starts at 8.30 a.m. and finishes at 3 o'clock.
 My brother and I go to the gym in the afternoon
 three times a week.
 I also go swimming once a week with my brother and my friends.
 I love swimming!
 What about you?
 Write soon!
 Terri

LONDON ZOO

London Zoo is located on the north side of Regent's Park, in London. It houses more than seven hundred species of animals from all over the world. It has different areas.

If you want to see lions and tigers, you can go to the "Big Cats" area. These big cats are predators but they also love to rest!

They can sleep up to 20 hours a day.

In the "Into Africa" area people can visit some of the most amazing African animals: hippos, zebras, giraffes, elephants and warthogs.

"Animal Adventure" is the part of the zoo where children have great fun. Lots of domestic animals, such as goats, donkeys and sheep live here.
